Maplewood Senior High School

THE completion of the new wing of the high school building marks this as another red-letter year in the history of Maplewood High School. This new east wing contains a large, well-equipped workshop, a beautiful Public Speaking room with a platform, pillars in the classical style, hard wood floors, and book-cases; a soundproof music room, adequate study hall; stack room; research room; an inviting library; a typing room with individual desks for forty people; biology room with apparatus and cabinets; nurse's office; Board of Education room; and six classrooms.

Noteworthy features in the west wing are: the offices of the superintendent and principal; the Fine Arts studio; science laboratories and lecture room; the cafeteria; gymnasium; sewing and cooking laboratories, the commercial workrooms and about twelve other classrooms.

Construction of the building was begun in 1930. The campus has been rolled and sodded, and the track widened during the last school year.

The School District of Maplewood

THE Public School system of this community is the largest single organization in the School District of Maplewood, with property assessed at $16,000,000 in grounds and buildings and with an annual expenditure of $300,000, most of which goes to pay the salaries of the people which it employs to instruct the 3400 pupils of the school district.

For the efficient management of this great business an executive committee or board, composed of six prominent citizens, is elected by the people of the School District of Maplewood. This board, representing the taxpayers, administers funds collected through taxation, and takes active charge of running of the schools, meeting on the second Thursday of each calendar month, in the office of the Superintendent, where it discusses the problems of the district. Its duties are many: employment of teachers, construction and maintenance of buildings and grounds, purchase of fuel, text books and supplies. To take charge of the every-day executive problems and to keep the district organization running during intervals between meetings the board employs a Superintendent of Schools as its representative. The members of the 1933-34 board are as given below.

We are indeed to be congratulated upon having such a leader.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

PRINCIPAL OF SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

The office of principal of the Senior High School is capably filled by Mr. Adams who has been affiliated with the school for several years. The success or failure of a school depends in great measure on the faculty of that school. Maplewood has long praised its excellent teaching staff. In appreciation of its work, these pages of the MAPLE LEAVES are dedicated to the faculty of Maplewood High School.

Teacher and student come in intimate contact during a most difficult period of the youth's adjustment to life. A teacher may influence a student as no one else might. The faculty not only teaches facts and ideas, but forms the personalities and characters and lives of the students.

Homework isn't only the students' curse; it is more often the teacher's. His cares do not drop from his shoulders when the three-thirty bell rings; there are papers to be graded, advance lessons prepared, supplementary reading, lectures to attend, innumerable queries to be answered. Frequently the teacher is asked to sponsor a group of students in some special extra-curricular activity: a club, paper, or team. It is through the faculty's sacrifice of time and labor that the school's work is made possible.

ACTIVITIES

Torch

A CHAPTER of the National Honor Society for Secondary Schools was organized in Maplewood High in the school year 1933-34, with Mr. Vossbrink as sponsor. Its purpose is to create an enthusiasm in scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership and to encourage and reward, by recognition, the development of character in the school body.

Membership is determined by scholarship and extra-curricular activities upon the vote of the faculty. Only a limited number of Juniors and Seniors may acquire membership and these are dropped if at any time they fall below the qualifications. At the end of each year the faculty board elects a permanent membership who retain their association and identity with Torch after graduation.

Maple Leaves

A SCHOOL is measured by its progress. Each year there must be some tangible signs of advancement in an educational institution to prove that, during the course of the scholastic term, that school has been awake and steadily improving.

The MAPLE LEAVES is a record of activities and, as each year passes, the success of the school is measured by the achievement found written in the pages of the high school annual.

Debate

MAPLEWOOD HIGH SCHOOL's 1933-34 debating team, coached by Mr. L. W. Welden, captured the East-Central Missouri District Championship, which entitled it to admission to the final tournament in the state championship contest. There the Maplewood team won third place in a field of one hundred sixty-nine Missouri school teams.

The Maplewood Debate Club is a member of the National Forensic League, and holds many degrees under it.

Maplewood was well represented in speaking contests at Westminster College in Fulton, Missouri Valley College at Marshall, and the N. F. L. District Meet at Webster Groves. Maplewood's squad carried the blue and white to victory in every corner of the state defeating, among others, University City, Soldan, Perryville, Marshall, Carrollton, Mountain Grove, and Montgomery City.

The state debate question was "Resolved: That the United States should adopt the essential features of the British system of radio control and operation."

Allan Bethel upheld both the affirmative and negative cases with rhetorical fervor; Thomas Oberbeck hurled forth facts and figures; Jack Martin insured the approval of all lady judges, and Janet Bland denounced the gouty, beetle-browed aristocrats of the radio syndicates. Lester Gross, Inez Zerman, Robert Schwartz, Gilmer Horn, and Leo Peck partook in forensic activities.

Senior Hi-Y

THE purpose of the Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community a higher standard of Christian living.

Under the leadership of Mr. Brown, the new sponsor, and Mr. Lewis, county Hi-Y official, a very extensive year has been brought to a close.

An outing at Peck's farm was first in line and was followed up by a very successful dance, a swimming party, a hay ride, and different forms of entertainment furnished by the members. Several interesting and instructive speeches were presented by prominent men, among whom were Coach Wahlbrink, Mr. Adams, Doctor Davis, Reverend Fritsche, Reverend Homer, and Mr. Lewis.

The Hi-Y is looking forward to another successful season in 1934-1935.

The Junior Hi-Y

THE Junior Hi-Y, in its first year, has mainly devoted itself to organization, in which it has been highly successful. The club has a capacity membership of thirty-five. In becoming members of this club, the boys have a better chance of joining the Senior Hi-Y. The club planned and carried out a hike to the Y. M. C. A. Camp Taconic, at Eureka, Missouri, where they stayed over the week-end. The hike was a success as any of the members who went along will testify.

Girl Reserves

THE Girl Reserves have had an interesting and varied series of activities this year. The most outstanding meetings were a joint program and party with the Hi-Y Club of Beaumont High School, an impressive recognition service for new members, a state conference, and an evening program featuring a one-act play.

Socially, the Girl Reserves have sponsored several outstanding functions: a faculty party, a Thanksgiving charity dance, a Christmas party for the poor children, a downtown Y. W. C. A. dance, and the traditional Girl Reserve spring dance.

Girls' Athletic Association

THE Girls' Athletic Association has as its aim the development of an interest and ability in sports, the establishment of fundamental health habits among high school girls, and the encouragement of sportsmanship among all members.

This peppy organization under its vivacious sponsor, Miss Vera Kretzmeier, has taken part in many activities, including roller-skating and ice-skating parties, Sports Day at Fulton, Missouri, and again at University City, climaxed by the annual G. A. A. banquet in the spring.

Participation is keen in the inter-class and inter-school games. Points are awarded the girls for hours spent in walking, hiking, roller-skating, ice-skating, horseshoe pitching, horseback riding, tennis, swimming, basketball, baseball, soccer, hockey, and volley ball.

Awards are given to those girls who keep health charts for sixteen weeks, pass a posture examination, make passing grades, and earn a sufficient number of points. After earning 500 points a girl receives a chenille shield; 1000 points, a Maple Leaf gold pin; 1500 points, a chenille Maple Leaf, and 2000 points, a chenille school letter. The awards are presented at the G. A. A. Banquet, at which time the officers for the ensuing year are installed.

The officers for 1933 include:

BETTY AMSDEN	Point System Manager
MARIAN GRAY	Soccer Manager
PEARL SAMUELS	Basketball Manager

S'vengali

SINCE its organization in 1931, S'vengali has led most of the high school clubs in activities, participating in assemblies and a great number of outside entertainments.

S'vengali is proud of the fact that its members receive training comparable to a high school course in public speaking. This experience is acquired by presenting a series of programs: the Assistant's, Associate's, and last, the coveted Master's test which requires the candidate to entertain with an excellent magical performance lasting a minimum of thirty minutes.

Home Economics Club

THE Home Economics Club was organized to provide social contact among girls interested in the different departments of Home Economics. Its activities have been educational as well as entertaining; for instance, Miss Barkley spoke on "Homes in Europe." The girls did Red Cross sewing; they witnessed a puppet show from Pevely Dairy, a film on "Rayon," and took a trip to Pevely Dairy. A hike to Forest Park, a taffy pull, and a Thanksgiving party were activities in a lighter vein.

Operetta

THE chorus classes, under the direction of Miss Geneva Freeburg, presented the Gilbert and Sullivan light opera, "Pinafore," on April 5 and 6.

The action takes place completely on board the H. M. S. Pinafore. The story concerns the love of Josephine, the captain's daughter, for Ralph Rackstraw, a common sailor. But Sir Joseph Porter is wooing Josephine. The lovers plan to elope but are caught after Dick Deadeye disclosed their plan to the captain. Buttercup, a bumboat woman, reveals the fact that Ralph and the Captain were interchanged at birth and the captain is of common blood; this changes the situation. Ralph is made captain and marries Josephine; Sir Joseph Porter succumbs to his cousin, Hebe's fascinations; and Buttercup unites her fortunes with those of the ousted captain.

The orchestra played for the performances under the direction of Mr. Van Meter.

Junior Prom

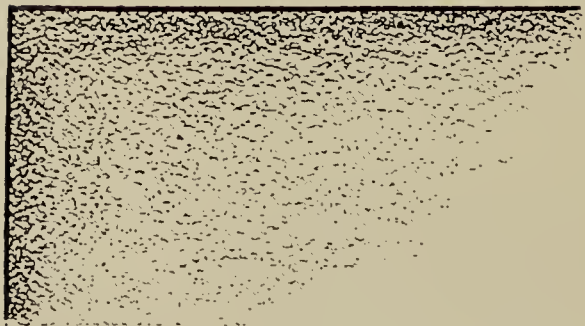

THE Junior class invited the Senior class to witness the coronation of Bonny May Garner, charming queen of love and beauty at the annual Junior Prom on February 10. Julia Brankel and Pearl Samuels served Her Honor as special maids. Six popular Junior attendants, Mavis Berry, Thomasine Birch, Shirley Bohn, Laura Louise Dille, Georgia LeGost, and Celeste Stertz, were announced by Leo Peck, Junior class president. Miss Garner received the crown from Inez McKnight, the retiring queen. A crown-bearer, heralds, flower girls, and ribbon bearers formed the royal retinue. After all homage had been paid to the queen, a dance was enjoyed to the delightful music of Vic Victor's orchestra.

The theme of the Prom emphasized Valentine Day. The gymnasium was cleverly decorated with Cupid's tools: varieties of hearts and arrows. Wandering spot-lights and a very clever reflector chandelier contributed to the romantic effect.

A. H. WAHLBRINK
Director of Athletics

COACH A. A. WAHLBRINK'S 1933 football charges tasted the sweets of a tie for the County League Championship. The team made a wonderful record this year, having suffered but one league defeat—the game with University City High.

The U. City Indians invaded the plains of Maplewood and made off with a 9-0 victory at the expense of the home eleven, which was hampered by a down-pour of rain that turned the field into a veritable quagmire.

The following boys were awarded major letters at the Football Banquet, which was held at Van Horn's Farm:

HARPE HARRISS, Center

Harpe, in his first year on the Maplewood team, played a splendid defensive game. He commanded every tip-off and out-jumped every rival center.

FRED HOLLINGWORTH, Forward, Center, Guard

Fred, as his positions show, was the most versatile player of our all-star team. His agility and drive made his opponents wish that he were on the bench.

RUSSELL LAYER, Guard

This Senior, second high scorer of the squad, has played his last game for Maplewood. All opponents feared his speed and skill at dribbling, and his ability to slip through and make a basket. He was the spark plug of the team.

BERNARD ANSTETT, Forward

Barney was the most dependable player on the Blue and White squad, a constant threat to opposing teams, and high scorer for the Blue Devils.

RICHARD DONNEWALD, Forward

A dependable reserve, Dick always turned in a good performance every time that he was called upon to play.

JOEL BARNETT, Guard

Joel put up many a good scrap at guard in the past season. The only thing he conceded to the enemy was inches, and he held his own with the biggest and best.

BEN SWAN, Center

Ben was another Blue Devil who fought hard and gave his utmost in all games.

TOMMY GARRETT, Forward

A flashy player who will be back next year to form the nucleus for another of Coach Wahlbrink's famous quintets.

Congratulations to the coach who can make an all-star county team.

Maplewood Relays

ONE of the finest track meets the St. Louis district has ever seen was witnessed by 3000 spectators on April 13 and 14 at the Maplewood High School Athletic field. Robert Ehrhardt of Clayton, Missouri, and Lowell Spurgeon of Centralia, Illinois, led the record-breaking field that smashed 10 of the 16 records. University City High School captured its fourth victory in the five years of annual relays, winning forty-nine points, primarily in track events.

The success of the meet reflected directly the efficient management of Armin A. Wahlbrink, director and founder of the Relays, and Harold J. Rath, Track coach of M. H. S.

Maplewood's relay teams were responsible for 11 of the 14 points. The 880-yard relay team, composed of Simon, Sommers, Morelock, and Raleigh, tied for third with Soldan. The mile relay team, Harreld, Henroid, Nortman, and Frueh took third in their relay. Russ Frahm took a fourth in each of the two hurdle events and Russ Layer gained a fourth in the broad-jump.
